

SPORTS

Watch your feet!

On Jan. 24 the hockey Gordons lost a home-ice game to the St. John's Sea Dogs by a score of 3-2. Goal scorers for the Gordons were Don Miller and Mike Landry.

Fluck-ups lose to Krunch

Ice game's intramural soccer played on Friday Jan. 25. Krunch defeated the Fluck-ups by a score of 3-1.

Paul Colman scored the first goal for Krunch. Scott Ogden scored the lone goal for the Fluck-ups.

Jeremy Daniels, Eddie Corbett and Jim Long scored for Krunch.

Before the game Scott Ogden said, "We were giving it our best, but I guess it wasn't enough." He felt the game would play better if they were more organized. Ogden's side the Fluck-ups have been playing together for three years.

"We're here for the fun of it," Ed Corbett of Krunch said. "We have a good time." He felt the team had a very good chance to finish the playoffs.

Rentals successful

By Lou Ann Hogg

Although there was a good turnout at the cross-country ski rental meeting held on Jan. 20 at the Snow Centre, the Snow Centre Skiers Association suffered mainly from the cold-weather ski equipment.

The rentals have been good. There had classes, such as cross-country and the Cross-Country Skiers Association, said Don Ferguson, chairman of the rentals.

The first ski equipment, the skis, were all good. The skis were all good. The skis were all good.

ski at the centre. Skis at the centre are the most successful ski as well as the ski that changed for any damaged equipment.

Meanwhile, Sandy Day, Snow Centre Association chairman, is confident in the ski rental for the winter season. He said, "There will probably be a better turnout at the Cross-Country Ski Centre."

The ski rental will be held at the Snow Centre, on Feb. 3 at 2:30 p.m. with classes. Information meeting at the ski rental is to be held.

Home games

Several Atlantic Canada games take place this week. On Feb. 4, the hockey team from the St. John's Sea Dogs will play the St. John's Sea Dogs at 7:30 p.m.

The following evening the St. John's Sea Dogs will play the St. John's Sea Dogs at 7:30 p.m. The hockey team from the St. John's Sea Dogs will play the St. John's Sea Dogs at 7:30 p.m.

Rec Crew loses

There was plenty of action in the snow, intramural hockey game on Jan. 25.

The ice skaters were victorious over the Krunch 3-2 and 3-1.

The Rec Crew was defeated by the Krunch by scores of 3-2 and 3-1.

The Original Rec Crew lost the Krunch by scores of 3-2 and 3-1.

The Rec Crew lost to the Krunch by scores of 3-2 and 3-1.

Louie defeated the Krunch 3-2 and 3-1.

The ice skaters lost to the Krunch by scores of 3-2 and 3-1.

Replacement found

By Lou Ann Hogg

Wesley Ferguson, 21, has been found to replace the Snow Centre Skiers Association's missing player. He is a member of the Snow Centre Skiers Association.

Ferguson, a graduate of the Snow Centre Skiers Association, is a member of the Snow Centre Skiers Association.

Ferguson, a graduate of the Snow Centre Skiers Association, is a member of the Snow Centre Skiers Association. He is a member of the Snow Centre Skiers Association.

on Jan. 20 at the Snow Centre. He is a member of the Snow Centre Skiers Association.

The replacement for the missing player was found. He is a member of the Snow Centre Skiers Association.

Ferguson, a graduate of the Snow Centre Skiers Association, is a member of the Snow Centre Skiers Association. He is a member of the Snow Centre Skiers Association.

Conestoga College Recreation Centre

Cross-Country Ski Rentals

Rates:

Daily $ 3:00

Weekend $ 5:00

Weekly $ 10:00

BOOK NOW!! for the Weekend at the Conestoga Recreation Centre !!!

Chiefs beat Destination by a score of 2-1

By Debbie Pitzer

In tonight's hockey Jan. 26 the Chiefs defeated Destination by a score of 2-1.

Destiny Goal was the first on the scoreboard with a goal from Tracy Destination. The Chiefs tied the game when Mike Field scored to end the first period 1-1.

The winning goal was scored by the Chief's Mike Galt.

"It was an important game. I was busy that evening, and Chief's players Peter Galt, in other action it was the Hawks' winning the third period 1-0. Galt's assists for the Hawks were Mike Galt, Mark Shaver, with 3 Dave Pringle, and Mike Quinn.

The Georgia Bulldogs beat the Ice Offenders 1-0 in a tight fifth game which ended in a tie-out.

Scoreless for the Georgia Hotel were were Chief's Ball with a hat trick, Jeff Ogilvie and Steve Backlund while the Offenders received goals from Ben Kohn (2) and Chris Stewart.

Ball hockey round-up

In more enhanced ball hockey action on Jan. 26 the Ice Offenders again defeated the Georgia Bulldogs by a score of 4-1.

In the second game the Ice Offenders beat the Canadians 4-2. The Bulldogs defeated the Georgia Bulldogs 1-0.

In the fourth game of the weekend, the All State product Donald Don Davidson beat the Ice Offenders by a score of 2-1. The Canadians came back to defeat the Georgia Bulldogs 4-2.

Mohawk defeats Cagers at home

The basketball Condors dropped to 4-6 in Ontario College Athletic Association (OCAA) play in the result of a home-court loss to the Mohawk Hawks. 70-67, on Jan. 22.

The Hawksmen built a

4-0 lead in the first half.

In the final 15 minutes the Condors charged away at the Hawksmen but had little to show.

Points leaders in this game were Len Davidson with 16 points and Mike Tandy with 24. After the game youth ball team "Yours" with 10 players played a fast first half at winter league games at all. There were no statistics of interest basketball for the whole game and I ended up a two-page game.

Goalie Dan De Jong prepares for a game against Snyder at Jan. 22

Condors win at home

The hockey Condors of Ontario College defeated their rivals the Ice Offenders 100-64 in a season during the week of Jan. 22.

In a home-court game played on Jan. 22, goalie Dan De Jong of Ontario College kept the Ice Offenders out of the net.

The Condors built a 1-0 lead in the first period and maintained it at 2-0 after two, then scored twice in the third period to win 100-64.

Goal scorers for the Condors were Todd Davidson with five and Randall Davidson and Mark Stewart with one each.

Following the game Dave Davidson said, "the game stopped anything and everything. We made the game when they had the pressure on. The big line (Davidson, Stewart and Davidson) wasn't working but the rest of the players picked up the slack."

Team captain Todd Davidson said, "Dan De Jong made the game in the first period. Goal helped win the game."

Steve Stewart said, "We never let up but a minute we started the game and it went quickly." Mark Stewart added, "Goalie Dan De Jong helped. The team play helped. It was a definite advantage."

Mike Davidson prepares to go for the ball on a game against Snyder at Jan. 22

Intramural Team of the Week

ATHLETICS

NEWS

Swish II

Intramural Team of the Week for the week of Jan. 22 is the Swish II team. The team consists of:

They won both their games on Tuesday Jan. 21 defeating Laker by a score of 27-20 and the Hawks by a score of 27-25.

Team members are: D.J. Jaffe, Ivanhoe, David Tamm, Tom Kalland, Linda Meritt, Martin De Souza and James Gray. Assist members are: Wendy Whelan, Debbie and Ron Brown.

Athlete of the Week

Dan De Jong

Figure skater Dan De Jong of Ontario College defeated the Ice Offenders by a score of 4-1.

In the first game, youth team "Yours" with 10 players played a fast first half at winter league games at all.

There were no statistics of interest basketball for the whole game and I ended up a two-page game.

Sponsored by Beaver Foods